The Mission of Sunset Hall

Sunset Hall is a nonprofit program for free thinking elders who continue to share independence of spirit and involvement in the world. Our mission is to create a sense of community and a caring supportive environment.

We are dedicated to creating and maintaining opportunities for educational, social, cultural and political participation by Sunset Hall members in the larger society. Sunset Hall is a membership organization. Its community members, supporters and volunteers share in its governance. We strive to be a model of multi-ethnic and intergenerational life for our members and our community.

Contact Sunset Hall for further information about participation in the Sunset Hall Program, and resident membership.

Special Note about Entering Paramount Studios

Sunset Hall appreciates Paramount Studio's generosity in allowing us to present the Garden Party on the studio lot again this year. When you respond, we will put your name on the list of all guests attending the event. Your name MUST be on this list in order to be admitted to the Paramount lot. Therefore, if you are planning to attend, or if you are even thinking about attending and plan to pay at the event, please call to let us know BY TUESDAY, APRIL 28th. We want you to come, but we cannot get you onto the lot if your name isn't on the list! Also, please have a "government-issued photo ID" (driver's license or similar) to show at the gate.
